PALM SPRINGS GAY MEN'S CHORUS
"CRUZIN' HAIGHT-ASHBURY TO WOODSTOCK" PALM SPRINGS ART MUSEUM ANNENBERG THEATRE

(Palm Springs, CA) March 29, 2018... The Palm Springs Gay Men's Chorus (PSGMC) will present "Cruzin' Haight-Ashbury to Woodstock" highlighting all the magic and excitement of the Summer of Love along with the intensity and life-changing experience of Woodstock. This period of time created milestones in the musical path of the 60's and 70's. New genres of music were created by the artistry of such mavericks as Simon and Garfunkel, The Drifters, Mamas and Papas, The Association and the California sounds of The Beach Boys.

Audiences will be singing and tapping their feet with program selections like "Joy to the World", "Cherish", "Bridge Over Troubled Water", "Sound of Silence" and "Feeling Groovy" along with a medley of hits from Jersey Boys. Principal Accompanist Joel Baker will do a suite of songs from everyone's favorite 70's duo, The Carpenters.

Hitch a ride on the Love Bus as we take a journey down memory lane.

"After three sold out performances for our holiday concert, we continually grow with new members and new music. Never before has the chorus done a presentation like "Cruzin" with music everyone will recognize reflecting memories from their youth. PSGMC is continuing to take giant strides forward with a roster of over 100 singers, while continuing our outreach into all cities of the Coachella Valley,” remarked Douglas Wilson, Artistic Director, PSGMC.

PSGMC’s performance home is the Palm Springs Art Museum Annenberg Theatre with state-of-the-art sound and lighting. Tickets are available through the box office at 760-325-4490 or online at www.PSGMC.com. It is strongly suggested that tickets be purchased in advance to ensure the best seats as the shows are expected to sell out. Discounted group tickets are available by contacting Marketing@PSGMC.com.
